

Camp Lejeune, North Carolina Multi-Cultural Heritage Day Celebration

Open to the Public

Cultural & Educational display, craft and food vendors, dancers, singers are needed.

Knowledge is the Key to tolerance.

This Cultural Celebration promotes a perspective on the lives of others around you as well as around the world to Overcome ignorance and prejudice.

17 September, 2010
1000-1500
Goetge Field House

Why we Celebrate?

This Multi-cultural gathering will honor diversity and celebrate our common heritage--the American Heritage. As Americans we epitomize unity through freedom. We are united in the strengths of diversity, a nation of great resources and opportunities, all of which can be attributed to the contributions and achievements of men and women of various racial, cultural and ethnic backgrounds. This event is intended to serve as recognition of achievements, a venue for education, and a day of cultural celebration.

Diversity is our strength

- We are all diverse people. Celebrating our differences, as well as our common interests, helps unite and educate us.
- People all around need to understand and learn to appreciate other cultures and this is one way to accomplish that.
- Through each other's diversity we become more aware of our own. Not only do we become more aware, we gain a sense of pride for the diversity of our own culture.

